

I believe that concentration of media in the hands of a few is going to reduce the flow of information to the public. As such it is going to weaken the degree to which the government is, in the words of one Republican, 'by the people and for the people'. Please ensure that we have diversity of voices in our media.